OUR STORY

Ted and Soula Theodorou shared a dream of opening a restaurant and in 1981, opened Delia's in Springfield, VA. Their experience with and natural love for Greek and Italian cuisine, their seamless management savvy and engaging welcome to patrons soon earned wide-spread notoriety and a hearty, growing business.

The star of their business is Delia's is fresh and baked-to-perfection pizza. It is built upon Ted's secret recipe crust that is a meeting of texture and taste made in pizza heaven. Delia's has garnered several awards including "Best Tasting Low Cholesterol In The Entire D.C. Metropolitan Area" from Discovery Channel host Lynn Fischer, author of "Low cholesterol & Gourmet Food". Delia's was also honored as one of America's best pizzerias in "Everybody Loves Pizza" a book generously endorsed by Mario Batali, best-selling author and celebrity chef on Food Network, and several James Bear award-winning food critics. Beyond Delia's delicious pizza the classic Old World dishes bring out robust flavors and a freshness that never fails to impress.

Having paved the road, their children Alki, George & Vicky are taking Delia's to new heights. Expanding the Delia's brand by focusing on new locations and growing the catering business.

A community favorite, Delia's hopes to continue providing everyone with exactly what you love, delicious food and service where you're treated like part of the family.
